

Today's Tips

According to a survey by The Ladders.com, the most useful second language for the U.S. business world is Spanish by a 61% vote. Chinese was next at 16%, followed by French, 8%; German 7%, Japanese 6%, and Italian, 2%.

For all workers in 2004, the median weekly salary was $638. Adjusted for inflation, the average hourly pay of $15.68 shrank by 0.7% with the average white-collar pay raises (3.5% in 2004) the lowest in 30 years. A growing trend is to give performance bonuses instead of pay raises.

A very useful website for moving information is www.realtor.com. More than 85% of all homes for sale in the U.S. are listed with photographs and virtual tours. The site also offers local school and crime reports under the "Moving" tab.

CHOICES

To: You

From: God

...My pride in you knew no bounds. You were my ultimate creation, my greatest miracle, a complete living being....

Thus we come to a law of success and happiness...for I gave you one more power, a power so great that not even angels possess it. I gave you... The power to choose...

Use wisely, your power of choice.

Choose to love...rather than hate.

Choose to laugh...rather than cry.

Choose to create...rather than destroy.

Choose to persevere...rather than quit.

Choose to compliment...rather than criticize.

Choose to heal...rather than wound.

Choose to give...rather than steal.

Choose to act...rather than procrastinate.

Choose to grow...rather than rot.

Choose to praise...rather than curse.

Choose to live...rather than die.

You are more than a human being; you are a human becoming. You are capable of great wonders. Never demean yourself or hide your talents. Your potential is limited only by your failure to follow Me.

Make your choices count for the ultimate good of yourself and mankind.

Unknown Author